2008 will be the 3rd edition of 24h Dubai

The successful previous 24h races in Dubai will definitely contribute to the Motorsport history in Dubai and in the Middle-East.

Both previous events have been the basis to build this event into a world class 24-hour race.

Facts:

- This 24h race at the 5.39km Grand Prix of the Dubai Autodrome is becoming more and more popular year by year.
 - 2006: 67 cars
 - 2007: 80 cars
 - 2008: max. 80 cars
- Also in the International Motorsport scene, this Middle-East 24h race in Dubai, is getting more and more famous. Which is irreversibly proved by the increasing number of participating different nationalities.

20 different nationalities challenged already 24hDubai:

• UK	Germany	The Netherlands	Australian
• Spain	Belgium	Japan	Hungary
• Czech Republic	Dubai (UAE)	Austria	Andorra
• France	Sweden	Slovakia	Italy
• Lithuania	Portugal	New Zealand	Bahrain

A lot of different car brands:

• Porsche	BMW	Renault	Alfa Romeo
• Seat	Ford	Mitsubishi	Subaru
• VW	Mazda	Honda	Suzuki
• Lotus

- Drivers are thrilled about the challenging 5,39km Grand Prix Circuit of Dubai Autodrome.
- Teams enjoy the modern facilities and the 36 wide air-conditioned pit boxes, 23 meters in length.
- Team members, fans and sponsors enjoy Dubai, it's environment, and the friendly people.
- The weather was, as you might expect from Dubai, beautiful, sunny, and 25 degrees.

Why booming Dubai?

- Booming Dubai is the place to be.
- Perfect for holidays, business trips, etc.
- It's the perfect opportunity for fans and sponsors to combine a 6 day holiday in Dubai with the 24h race.
- The Autodrome is a completely new circuit with modern facilities.
- It's a new, very challenging and technical race track.
- It has all F1-facilities, including air-conditioned pit boxes.
- Weather conditions are general ideal in January, with temperatures about 20C -25C.
- It's only a 6 hour flight from Europe.
- Event and team presentation and promotion with own race cars in Dubai City.
